Ruby was phenomenal. She did a great job of teaching the course and is great at explaining concepts.
Ruby was an AMAZING TF and was incredibly available to help discuss course materials when I needed. She explains things super digestibly, and knows her stuff very well.
Ruby explained topics well in section, and was very helpful in OH and at the final review!
Ruby makes difficult concepts very understandable! Very helpful during office hours too.
Ruby was seriously a great teaching fellow for this course. She answered a lot of my questions over email when she did not have to, and held great enthusiasm for the material and her students. I found the sections to be helpful in enforcing the lecture material, being able to ask questions there as needed.
Ruby was an amazing section leader. Her sections and office hours helped me immensely throughout the semester, and she was always so nice and enthusiastic about the class.
Ruby is a great TF! She is very knowledgeable on the subject matter and teaches very clearly. She is also available to help students during office hours.
Ruby might be the best economics section leader I have ever had. If you're part of a university search committee for an assistant professor position, please do your university's students a favor and hire Ruby. Ruby is amazing for a myriad of reasons, but I want to highlight three in particular. (1) Firstly, she is just really gifted at teaching economics. I have taken many FOCs in my undergrad degree and solved many different micro problems, but I still feel like I walked away with a better micro foundation from this course, in no small part because of Ruby's sections. I did not miss a single section largely because Ruby was so excellent at explaining course material in an accessible manner. (2) Secondly, she is incredibly generous with her time and very responsive to questions. She always promptly responded to emails I might have sent her and her explanations were always succinct and insightful. The night before the final exam, she went through the papers we needed to know for the final with a small group of students who had showed up to her office hours because we had asked for some help reviewing key papers. She cares a lot for her students and this is abundantly evident to how she approaches teaching. (3) Thirdly, she generates enthusiasm for economics. She's such a kind, wonderful educator that it's hard to not be excited to learn economics during her section. I am so excited for whatever university gets to have Ruby on their faculty!

She is really clear and organized in her teaching. Also really appreciate how responsive Ruby is via email to answer questions about the material and related concepts!
Ruby is an excellent teaching fellow. She is very responsive to emails and questions in office hours and is good at breaking down the complicated concepts introduced in lecture. Her section notes are concise and help to reinforce what has been taught through the lecture.
Ruby is an amazing TF — made time to answer questions, section was useful.
Ruby is the best!! thank you for being such a great section leader and explain concepts so well
Very knowledgeable and very good at explaining the assigned topics – both in section and office hours. Facilitated relevant discussions during section and available and helpful during office hours. Excellent section leader!
An incredible TF – explains well and genuinely cares. Only complaint is feedback came back too late but likely because she is the only TF

This course was really well designed – it covers very useful computing skills that we don't learn elsewhere. Toren and Ruby explained everything very clearly, and the exercises helped me practice and internalize things. They also gave very useful support and guidance in the in-class exercise sections.
I learned some of the implementation techniques for computing as an economist. It was a great pleasure to have Toren and Ruby as the TFs who were just absolutely fantastic and are some of the best TFs I have ever met! Truly a great course.
